

SEAL HUNTERS LOST

They Were Caught in a Fierce Gale Off Newfoundland.

ALL HEARD FROM BUT THIRTEEN

Driven Out to Sea a Great Many Reached Land Again, But Ten Are Reported Frozen to Death.

St. Johns, N. F., March 1.—Saturday 200 men were caught by a fierce gale while out seal hunting and were driven off the coast. Monday twenty-four landed at Heart's Delight utterly exhausted and badly frozen. Seven are reported to have landed at Shovel harbor badly frozen. It is reported that ten of the seal hunters have been found frozen to death. All have now been accounted for but thirteen. There is intense excitement all along the coast.

JOHN T. HENRY KILLED.

The Old Man Run Down by a Train—He Had an Interesting History.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., March 1.—Monday night John T. Henry was run down by a railroad train and killed as he was attempting to cross the track. He saw the train backing up toward him in time, but he was too slow for the cars and was knocked down. The wheels did not run over him but he was caught between the rails and badly crushed so that he died in a little while. He was 86 years old, and one of the best-known citizens in the whole region. He was one of the first agents of the Chicago & Alton railroad and had a life pass on the road in consideration of his faithful services. He also had an illustrious history, having been in the Blackhawk war and a member of the same company in which Lincoln enlisted. The friendship then formed lasted as long as the latter lived. Mr. Henry leaves a family of sons. He will be greatly missed in his vicinity.

Signed the Behring Sea Agreement.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Secretary Blaine and Minister Poncefote have signed the agreement which has been reached between the United States and Great Britain on the Behring sea question. The exact terms of the treaty cannot now be stated, but it is known that the board of arbitration will consist of seven persons, two representing the United States, two representing Great Britain, one of whom is to be Canadian, and one each representing the neutral governments of France, Sweden and Italy.

Their Children Saved Them.

SLATER, Mo., March 1.—Joseph Baker, Jr., one of the wealthiest stockmen of central Missouri, and his wife were nearly smothered to death Monday night by the closing up of a large folding bed weighing 500 pounds. The groans of Mrs. Baker brought the children to the rescue, and their utmost efforts were needed to save the lives of their parents. Mrs. Baker is in a precarious condition. Mr. Baker will bring suit against the manufacturers of the bed.

Humiliation Made in Suicide.

MURKIN, Tenn., March 1.—J. A. Torian, once a wealthy planter of Horn Lake, Miss., came to Memphis to get supplies for the coming year. The low price of cotton caused all merchants and bankers to refuse him credit, and, smarting under the humiliation, he killed himself.

Fell Dead.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 1.—John Dashiell, once a prominent merchant of this city, fell dead just after closing a contract with Kirk Allen, and saying: "I'll do it if I die."

Three Children Perish by Fire.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 1.—Fire destroyed a small frame dwelling occupied by a family named Simpson. Three children were burned to death.
